

Anti-bullying week 2025

This year, Anti Bullying week was from Monday 10th November to Friday 14th November 2025. As a School, we supported this event with many various activities related to this topic for the children to take part in, through PSHE (SCARF) lessons, assemblies and at breaktimes/lunchtimes.

As well as the events which were taking place in school, we created a different theme for each day for anti-bullying week and empower the children to choose respect.

Monday 10 th November –	 The children come into school in their uniform but wearing odd socks! This celebrates individuality and reminds us that it's great to be different. Let's start the week by showing that our differences make us special.
Tuesday 11 th November Remembrance Day	 The children come into school in their uniform and will be spreading kindness by writing or sharing kind words with others. We'll focus on the power our words have to make someone's day better.
Wednesday 12 th November	 Children will come in their uniform and design a "Power for Good" poster to show how they can make a difference. We'll display these around the school to spread the message!
Thursday 13 th November	 The children come in their uniform but can also wear a hat, cape, or badge to represent their 'inner hero'. We'll be talking about real-life heroes who use their power for good every day.
Friday 14 th November CHILDREN IN NEED	 The children come dressed in spots for this year's Children in Need theme Spotacular. During the day, each class will also take part in our Dance-a-thon to raise money for Children in Need. Donations of £1 will go to Children in Need.

As well as all of these great events, our wonderful Year 6 ambassadors conducted a performance to the whole school, sharing the message of “Power for Good”. They were truly outstanding, and we are so proud of the.

 SCENE 1 – INTRODUCTION

(Soft music plays. Children stand in two lines facing the audience.)

Narrator 1:

Welcome, everyone! This week is Anti-Bullying Week, and our theme is...

All Together (cheerfully):

"The Power for Good!"

Narrator 2:

That means each of us has the power to make good choices — to be kind, to stand up for others, and to make our school a happier place.

Narrator 3:

Sometimes, using your power for good means being brave, helping someone, or just smiling at someone who's having a hard day.

(Music fades. Children sit or stand around in "classroom" formation.)

 SCENE 2 – THE CLASSROOM

Teacher:

Good morning, class! Today we're talking about kindness. Who can tell me what kindness means?

Emma:

Kindness means helping someone, even if you don't have to.

Ben:

It means using your words to make someone feel better, not worse.

Teacher:

Excellent! Remember, kindness is powerful — it can change someone's day.

 SCENE 3 – THE PLAYGROUND

(Ben is sitting alone on a bench. Liam and Ava walk by.)

Liam (mocking):

Hey, look — it's Ben, sitting by himself again! No one wants to play with him.

Ava (uncertainly):

Liam, that's not nice...

Ben (quietly):

Please stop...

Liam:

Why should I? It's just a joke.

(A few classmates nearby whisper and look uncomfortable. Mia steps forward.)

Mia:

It's not a joke, Liam. It's bullying — and it's not okay.

Classmate 1:

Yeah, Ben's really kind. He helped me find my lost jumper yesterday.

Classmate 2:

We should all be kind — not mean.

(Liam looks embarrassed.)

Liam (quietly):

I... I didn't realise I was being a bully. I just thought it was funny.

Ava:

Sometimes we don't notice how our actions make others feel. But we can change — we can use our power for good!

SCENE 4 – THE CHANGE

Liam (to Ben):

I'm sorry, Ben. Do you want to play with us?

Ben (smiling):

Sure! Thanks, Liam.

(They all start playing together — skipping, imaginary football, etc.)

Narrator 1:

When we choose kindness, everyone wins.

Narrator 2:

When we speak up, we show courage.

Narrator 3:

And when we use our power for good, we make our school a place where everyone feels safe and happy.

SCENE 5 – WHAT CAN WE DO?

(Children stand in a semicircle. One by one, they speak.)

Emma:

We can smile at someone new.

Ben:

We can sit with someone who's alone.

Liam:

We can say sorry if we've hurt someone.

Ava:

We can stand up when we see bullying.

Mia:

We can tell a teacher or a grown-up if someone's being hurt.

Classmate 1:

We can use kind words.

Classmate 2:

We can share.

Classmate 3:

We can include everyone in our games.

Classmate 4:

We can be brave.

Classmate 5:

We can listen.

Classmate 6:

We can use our power for good!

All Together (enthusiastically):

Because kindness is powerful!

SCENE 6 – THE MESSAGE

(Narrators step forward. Music softens.)

Narrator 1:

Sometimes it takes courage to do what's right.

Narrator 2:

But even small acts of kindness can make a big difference.

Narrator 3:

So this week — and every week — remember...

All Together (strongly):

Use your Power for Good!

(Everyone cheers, holds up signs or letters spelling "POWER FOR GOOD.")

Teacher (stepping forward):

Thank you, everyone. Let's remember: at our school, we stand together against bullying, and we use our Power for Good every single day!

(Applause. Music: upbeat outro — "Count on Me" by Bruno Mars or another positive song.)
