Reach For The Stars

Update from EYFS

This term, our exciting new topic Sailing the Seas began with a wonderful surprise – the children arrived to discover an ocean-themed classroom, complete with a mysterious message in a bottle! This sparked lots of curiosity and imagination as we begin our journey across the high seas. The children have already been asking some fantastic questions, such as “Why is the sea salty?” and “Why does seaweed always move?”—which we are excited to investigate together.

We will be exploring what it takes to become a perfect pirate: designing and building floating pirate ships, following maps to uncover hidden treasure, and going on our own adventures. We will also be learning about the ocean near Bournemouth and discovering some of the incredible sea creatures that live there. The children will also be creating their own sea creature puppets and performing an ocean-themed show for their peers on our fantastic new stage, kindly provided by our amazing PTFA. We are looking forward to a term full of creativity, exploration, and adventure!

Year 5

A huge thank you to all our wonderful parents for supporting the children with their family writing. Your time, encouragement, and shared stories have helped them produce thoughtful, heartfelt work that has made our school display truly special. It has been lovely to read about the diverse range of countries represented by our school community and to see how much pride the children have. It has really added a meaningful and engaging focus point to the corridor. Your partnership and involvement in the task is greatly appreciated.

The Day The Crayons Quit – Drew Daywalt

Poor Duncan just wants to colour in. But when he opens his box of crayons, he only finds letters, all saying the same thing: We quit. Beige is tired of playing second fiddle to Brown, Blue needs a break from colouring in all that water, while Pink just wants to be used. Green has no complaints, but Orange and Yellow are no longer speaking to each other. The battle lines have been drawn. What is Duncan to do?
